

Greater Boston Interfaith Organization

REDEDICATION ASSEMBLY & ACTION

WHEN: May 12, 2015 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm

WHO: 1500 GBIO members, Governor Baker, Speaker DeLeo, Attorney General Healey & Mayor Walsh

WHERE: Trinity Episcopal Church

Copley Square, between Clarendon & Dartmouth Streets facing the Boston Public Library. Main entrance is off Copley Sq. Back entrance at 206 Clarendon St is closer to the parking garages.

PURPOSE: Move forward with public officials on a vision for the future, recognizing their support for GBIO's agenda and asking for their commitment on issues emerging from GBIO's priorities.

Directions

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION:

Via the Orange Line, two block walk from Back Bay Orange Line station

Via the Green Line, A,B,C,D and E lines at the Copley station

Bus lines serving Copley Square: 9, 10, 39, 55, 57, 170, 502, 503

Via the Commuter rail, Franklin, Needham, Providence and Framingham lines at Back Bay

PARKING:

Street parking is very limited.

The closest facility is Back Bay Garage, 500 Boylston Street; enter from Clarendon (directly behind church) or St. James St. With coupon available online, parking after 5:00 is $8. Next closest is Back Bay Station, 100 Clarendon St, where parking after 5:00 is $10.00 for any length over one hour.