

CALL TO ACTION!

Housing Justice Campaign April Update

We're in a critical moment for the campaign. We need $184 Million allocated for Public Housing in the FY24 Budget. There are several steps we can take, all of which will help get us there. For a deeper dive, watch the recording from our meeting on April 4th. To jump into action, read on!

Call Your Legislators TODAY

The House files its budget by April 12th! Our opportunity now is to tell our representatives [and State Senate] that when the House puts out its own budget proposal, we want the $184 Million required in operating funds for state public housing included. Brookline Public Action - April 13th 5:30pm

The state budget for our public housing is in danger of being flatlined. Join your fellow Brookline Housing Authority tenants for food and fellowship as we invite our legislators on a tour to see the condition of our buildings firsthand. At the end, we will DEMAND the $184 million budget we deserve.

Gather at 5:40 for refreshments and settling in. Program starts at 6 PM. Legislators and press will tour the Egmont Trustman Brookline public housing units and proceed to United Parish to join our program. Click Here To Register Brookline Action
